

Shantell V. Brown

March 27, 1978 - September 25, 2009

SHANTELL V. BROWN, daughter of Tresia Harris and Kenroy Brown, was born on March 27, 1978. She departed this life suddenly on September 25, 2009. Shantell attended Rosemont Elementary School, Lamel Jr. High School and Lake Clifton Sr. High School in Baltimore City. She loved to dance from the time she was a little girl. She loved to style hair and attended the Baltimore City School for Hair Design. She loved to dress and look good so she would also design some of her own clothes. Shantell gave her life to the Lord. She was saved; she was a child of God. She spent a lot of her time with her children and she loved to dress them as well. Shantell was very friendly. To know her was to love her because she was such a special person. She would try to help in anyway she could and she loved children. She often referred to her two brothers, her mother and herself as the "Four Force One". Now she's gone... She leaves to cherish his memory: her two daughters, Deaja T. Lewis and Diamond Watkins; her mother, Tresia Harris; her father, Kenroy Brown; a step-mother, Denise Brown; five sisters, Danyelle, Kendra, Janelle, Danesha, and Falesha; three brothers, Kendall, Christopher and James; Grandparents, Casilda and Stanford Brown; six aunts, Dorothy, Marcia, Lorna, Jeanette, Diane and Marie; five uncles, James, Michael, Douglas, Bob and Rayfield and a host of nieces, nephews, cousin and friends.

“ May GOD continue to bless the family in a special way. There are so many things that happen in life that we don't understand and we find ourselves asking so many questions and sometimes not finding the answers. To the family - keep you head to the sky, JESUS will make everything alright. Diamond and Dee-Dee, mother is resting safely in the arms of JESUS, she will continue to live in your hearts forever. We are praying for you all.###imported-begin###LaVerne Curbeam-Tilghman###imported-end###

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I hope this scripture will give you much comfort. Revelation chapter 21:4; "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May God continue to strengthen you. Sincerely, C. Bain##imported-begin##Charlotte Bain##imported-end##

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy'. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Jesus Christ, bring our 'enemy' to nothing (1Corinthians 15;26). What a wonderful day that will be!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson###imported-end##

“ If only there were something that friends could say or do, some way they might express their thoughts and help to comfort you, and yet, perhaps, just knowing that there are those who care, will help at least in some small way to ease the loss you bear.###imported-begin##The March Family and Staff###imported-end##

“ When tears come from something other than fear The circumstances have to beyond mere Acknowledging mind over matter is fierce but emotions are sincere Especially when what exist appear clear Then having to place it on the burner in the rear Temperature so high it is impossible to deny what you see and hear Maintaining patience is hard but makes all virtues clear Through obstacles full of clouds everywhere Ignorance, Selfishness, Envy and loved ones who don't care Its life, so grab a few snickers and pull a chair To analyze all that is here to get there “Problems Disappear” Love Bear###imported-begin##Bear###imported-end##
