“ To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. The sorrow we feel when we loose someone we love can seem to go on forever. It may seem like there is no source of relief. Be assured that there is one that will provide us with relief, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). We only have to ask. Jehovah promises that there will soon be an end to death, (Rev 21:3,4) and a resurrection for those who have fallen asleep in death (John 5:28,29). These promises were made by the "God who cannot lie." Titus 1:2. I would love to discuss these and other wonderful provisions with you. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I wish to extend my sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mrs Smith. The pain we feel when we lose a loved one in death can be truly overwhelming, and so hard to come to terms with. It's especially hard when we contemplate the fact that we can no longer share life with them at present. Will things always be this way? Not according to God's word, which shows that there are many wonderful blessings just ahead for obedient mankind. The most wonderful blessing is a permanant end to sickness and death. 1st Cor 15:26 lets us know that "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. As for the dead, they will be awakened from the sleep of death in the ressurection. At John 11:25 Jesus said: "I am the ressurection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me even though he dies, will come to life." So rest assured, if we obey and love our heavenly father, we will see our loved ones again. Please be comforted.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you experience much comfort and strength every time you think about the wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##
