

Sharon Dickerson-Reed

December 17, 1968 - August 24, 2020

It is with our deepest sorrow, we announce that Sharon Patrice Dickerson-Reed, 51, of Richmond VA received her wings on August 24th, 2020. She was a loving daughter, sister, mom, wife, grandmother and friend. Sharon was a graduate of John Marshall High School and recently earned her certification as a Medical Billing and Coder Administrator with ICD 9 & 10 Diagnostic & Procedural Codes from the University of Richmond, School of Professional & Continuing Studies.

Sharon played hard but worked even harder. She was employed at the University of Richmond for 8 years, and worked at their Richmond on Broad Cafe where she was not afraid to get her hands dirty and embodied the Go Spiders spirit. She had recently accepted a new position at VCU Health System as a Patient Access Representative and was excited and looking forward to starting this new career.

Sharon was full of life, love, joy and laughter. Most people upon meeting her, thought she was either quiet or not to be messed with. However, that was far from the truth. Once you got to know her, it was easy to see that she was one of the nicest, sweetest, humblest and funniest people around. Sharon had a way about her. For those of you that know, she gave everything a name as a term of endearment and way to show appreciation and love. She recently purchased her first new car (a 2015 Honda Civic), which she proudly named "Him."

Sharon loved going to the movies and also taking selfies. She probably spent more time taking pictures of herself on her phone than she did talking to anyone on it, other than her grandkids. She was also an avid reader of all genres of African American Literature. She recently found a new love of attending 'Trap Cardio' and line dancing. Her love for this high energy get-you-moving workout style had her on a trajectory to living a healthier lifestyle. She even lost 40 pounds while attending weekly classes.

Sharon was preceded in death by her youngest son, Tariq Ormond Dickerson. She is survived by her husband, Louis D. Reed; devoted son, Steffan K. Dickerson Sr. (fiancee Lakia Flippen); grandchildren, Steffan K. Dickerson Jr. and Kalani E. Dickerson; stepson, ZaQuelle Bowman; mother, Marcia B. Pittrell; father, Kermitt Fox (Dorothy); siblings, Frances A. Dickerson-King (Tjay), Karen, uarvis and Brandon Fox; sister in-law, Shareka Reed; her four-legged nephew, Choe and a host of other relatives and friends. Sharon will be deeply missed by all that knew and loved her.

“ I only knew Sharon from hundreds of lunches I ordered from her at Richmond on Broad over the past several years before it closed. But I miss the pleasant exchanges I had with her so often. She teased me that she knew the summer had passed into fall, because of a wool felt hat I wore as the weather cooled. We shared small stories of friends and family and weekend plans and my children's graduating from college and striking out on their own. As much as I lament the impact of COVID on my relationships with close friends and family, I also regret how it reduces the humanizing impact of small transactions with people who could make you smile. And from reading some other postings herein, I can see that Sharon had even more impact on her deeper relationships. -- Paul Gill

“ Sharon was such a joy to see every time I went to the downtown cafe. When I needed a pick me up, I came searching for coffee, but Sharon's welcoming smile and warm presence was the real "pick me up" I needed. It was such a privilege knowing her. May her memories be of comfort and know that I'm taking time to pray for your family during this difficult time.

“ Tim Hobson from T's Barber Salon. I remember my 1st day meeting Sharon in 1984. I was with my best friend & he said he had to fight someone after school. So i went with him of course. When we got to Nottingham apts, there she was SHARON , waiting & ready to go. I talked them both out of fighting , but she still punched him in his stomach. The next day we laughed about it & Sharon & i have been friends & laughing about that fight for the last 36 yrs..R.I.P my FRIEND 🙏

“ Sharon, I want to thank you for being such a great friend to my sister Rosalyn and a good friend to me. Also for being a second mom to Quan and Mia. I'm going to miss messing with you every time I call Rosalyn thru Facebook or phone, telling you to go home it's past your bedtime. I enjoyed our last outing Feiday. You are truly missed, watch over all of us. RIP and FLY HIGH❤️

“ My buddy, my pal, I will miss you dearly. I will always cherish the memories of our fun conversations that made my cheeks hurt from laughter. I could always count on you to put a smile on my face. You were truly kindhearted, hardworking, energetic but most of all, I want everyone to know how blessed I feel you were a part of my life for 7 years at the University.

God Bless the Family.
