

Sharon Estelle Hawkins

June 17, 1963 - April 4, 2003

Sharon Estelle Hawkins, daughter of Sarah E. Hawkins, was born on June 17, 1963 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Friday evening, April 4, 2003 at Bon Secours Hospital. She received her education at Lemmel Middle School and later graduated from Walbrook High School in Baltimore, Maryland. She became employed by a variety store at Mondawmin Mall and later worked at Hawkin's Grocery Store, which was owned by her mother. She was raised under the religious direction of Rev. Louis W. Foxwell, Sr. of Christ United Methodist Church for the Deaf, located in Baltimore, Maryland. She also attended Community Baptist Church of Walbrook and also attended James Tabernacle Baptist Church at 3400 Mondawmin Avenue. She leaves to mourn: her mother; her children, Chim'ere Lewis, Tia and Kia Street and Dawon Hawkins; brothers, Gregory, Jeffrey and Larry Hawkins (brother Tyrone Hawkins preceded her in death); uncles, Vernon Hawkins and Theodore (uncles, Ernest and Leroy Hawkins and great-uncle, Avon Freeman preceded her in death); aunt, Iris Hawkins; a host of other relatives and friends, including a special devoted sister, cousin and friend since birth, Margie Estelle Robinson. She loved children. She also enjoyed baking cakes and pies, taking trips to Atlantic City, going to Pimlico Race Track, going to the movies, listening to music and going to the cookouts in the country at the family reunions.
