

Sharon Hopkins

January 11, 1959 - May 19, 2015

Sharon Ursula Hopkins, daughter of Beverly Brown Knotts and the late Andrew Thornton James, was born January 11, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life May 19, 2015, after a lengthy illness at the age of 56 years young.

Sharon received her education in Baltimore, Maryland and was certified in electronic engineering. For many years, she worked at Shimadzu Scientific Instruments as a Quality Assurance Manager implementing processes the company still uses today.

A former member of First Mount Olive Freewill Baptist Church, Sharon continued her spiritual enrichment at Frederick Villa Nursing Home.

Sharon was very outgoing and loved to travel. She enjoyed food and loved to watch her movies, "The Lord of the Rings" and "Hobbit" to name a few. Most of all, Sharon cherished her pride and joy, the love of her life, her daughter, Shanell, whom she loved with every fiber of her being. Her larger than life personality afforded her many lifelong friendships. Her presence will truly be missed.

She leaves behind: her mother, Beverly B. Knotts; her daughter, Shanell Nija Cleckley; sister, Gloria McGowan; two brothers, John Gadson and Leonard

Scott; many nieces, nephews, cousins, and beloved friends.

“ *I noticed that Sharon passed away recently and wanted to give her a wonderful help for the future. You will be able to see her again in the Paradise earth that Jesus talked about and demonstrated when he was on earth. Please read Rev. 21:3,4
