

Sharon L Neeley

December 15, 1946 - March 1, 2025

SHARON LEE NEELEY was born in Wheeling, West Virginia in the Ohio Valley Hospital on December 15, 1946. She was the daughter of the late Marie Ann Brown and James Edward Brown. Sharon departed her earthly lie on Saturday, March 1, 2025.

As a young girl, Sharon moved to Baltimore to live with her aunt, Veola Williamson who raised her to be the wonderful woman that you came to know. She attended Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Frederick Douglas High School. After graduating from high school, she worked at a Parkville, Maryland cleaners for many years.

Sharon was very family oriented. She may not have had any children of her own, but she had a huge heart and was a caregiver to her nieces and nephews who loved her as much as she loved them. She loved the game bowling and became a pro bowler, she also enjoyed playing cards, going to the movies, reading, and most of all spending quality time with her family and friends. Sharon had a contagious smile and loved to laugh. She would visit local churches on Sunday mornings, especially Faith Tabernacle which many of her family members belonged to and attended. Sharon was a genuine person who lived her life to the fullest until she became ill when she was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis. She continued to live with her Aunt Veola for many happy years until her illness took her to the Levin Dale Nursing

Home in Northwest Baltimore.

Sharon was preceded in death by: Marie Ann Brown (mother) James Edward Brown (father) Cornelius Emerson Brown (brother): and Elvis Eugene Brown (brother). She leaves to cherish her memories: George Elliott Brown (brother): Jack Brown (sister- in- law) Tony Maurice Brown (nephew) Leola Johnson (sister-cousin) Harry Jake Anderson (cousin) and a host of loving cousins and friends.
