

Sharon Ann Thorne

February 9, 1952 - September 7, 2011

SHARON ANN THORNE, daughter of the late Robert and Berlean Thorne, was born on February 9, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. Sharon departed this life on September 7, 2011.

Sharon received her education at Frederick Douglass High School. She met Joshua Butler and from this relationship three loving daughters were born: Nicole Priscilla, Contina Mary (who preceded her in death), and LaDonna Denise. Sharon devoted her time to making sure her daughters were alright and later two of her grandsons, Dominic Deontay Burrell and William Campbell, Jr. were the center of her joy.

Sharon was a twin and Sandra (who passed away in 2010) was her “other half”. Sharon and Sandra were more than twins: they were best friends, inseparable. Most people knew them as the twins from Monroe Street. Their bond was more than anyone could imagine. Like Sandra, Sharon also liked very much helping others, quilting and working crossword puzzles.

Sharon leaves to cherish her memory: her faithful and loving daughters, Nicole Burrell and LaDonna Campbell (William Campbell, Sr.) eight grandchildren; three sisters, Patricia White (Haywood White), Deborah Thorne-Ruffin (William Ruffin) and Roslyn Campbell; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. How comforting in knowing Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our loved ones. Jesus himself said: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29
