Obituary

Love is how you stay alive even after you are gone.

Sharon Maxine Lipscomb Wiggins, of Richmond, Virginia was given eternal peace January 13, 2016. She was born May 31, 1956 to the late Theodore and Corrine Hairston Lipscomb.

Sharon was a loving and sweet spirit who made friends everywhere she went. She was a dedicated mother to her son and grandmother to her grandchildren. Her loving care was a strong influence in their lives. Everyone she befriended loved her dearly. Even during her illness she showed loving compassion.

At an early age, she accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior. Worshipping at various churches in the Richmond area was her favorite way to nourish her faith from which she sought strength and comfort. It was her love of God brought her through the tough period of mourning after the passing of her only daughter Corrina.

She received her childhood education from Maggie L. Walker High School in Richmond. After high school she attended J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College. That post high school preparation helped shape her as a hardworking and reliable employee. For 25 years, until her retirement, Sharon was a dedicated Medical Secretary for McGuire VA Medical Center.

Throughout her working life and in during the leisure of retirement, she enjoyed cooking, reading and sewing.

Sharon will be greatly missed for her kindness and being a helping hand to others. To cherish her memory she leaves her loving son, Edward L. Wiggins, Jr. of Ridgeway, VA; grandchildren, An'ya and Latreal Wiggins; devoted cousin, Brenda Dark (Jesse) of Danville, VA; extended family members Wilbert and Margaret "Peggy" Pulliam; loving friend, Joyce Smith; and a host of other relatives and caring friends.

“ Edward,
About 30 years ago,your mother and I worked at a Market Research Company together,part time. She and I became fast friends. We both had little boys to raise. MY son was 5 and you were 10. I had just started working for Dept. Of Veteran Affairs. She asked me to refer her for employment. I brought her an application.She used me as reference and we shared over the next 20+ years as co-workers , Union advocates and most of all, friends. We even traveled to Reno together. She was tough and fought everyday to give you the best. She was a proud Mom and especially proud grandma. May God wrap his arms around you and family and take you to your special memory space whenever you need a hug.

“ Sharon was my neighbor for a very short time. I found her to be a very funny lady who told it like it was. We did not share often but on one occassion I took her to find her lost phone and she told me her life story in that short hour together. She was always grateful for any assistance I gave and I marveled at her fortitude during her many health challenges. May you the family be comforted in knowing she now walks and talks with God in the Heavenly kingdom. Rest in Peace my sister in Christ. With sympathy and blessings.

“ Edward,
I express my deepest sympathy to you and your family at this time. We loved your Mom a lot here at the McGuire VA Medical Center. She trained me when I first got here and we were both AFGU Union Stewards, She really loved you and talked about you a lot. she was always a good fighter and fought hard for our Union members. May she rest in peace and always remember - "weeping may endure for a night, joy comes in the morning". God bless you and God will give you strength during your time of sorrow.
