

Sharon J. Williams

July 29, 1951 - January 1, 2016

Sharon "Khiyetta" Joan Williams peacefully responded to God's call that her labor had been rewarded and it was time to come home and rest. She departed on Friday, January 1, 2016, from the trauma of this world to a tranquil place of peace. Sharon was born to the late Henry & Marie Williams on July 29, 1951, in Baltimore, MD.

Sharon was preceded in death by one son, Keith Carlton Winder; two brother, Reginald Williams and Arnold Williams; and one sister, Alice Fitch, also known as "Jean".

Sharon received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System at Fairmount Hill High School. Sharon worked continuously throughout her career in the human service field. She was dedicated to providing care to the developmentally disabled community in both Baltimore City and County.

Anyone who knew or came into contact with Sharon, knew that she was light hearted, very kind with a huge heart, and had an outgoing personality. Sharon was the life of any and all celebrations. She just wanted everyone to enjoy themselves and have a great time. Sharon was helpful in so many ways and there was just nothing she wouldn't do for anyone. She just enjoyed life and lived life.

Sharon was also known as "Khiyetta," Grandma Sharon, and Ma-Ma. She leaves to cherish her memories and to celebrate her life: one son, Ken C. Johnson; daughter-in-law, Sheila Johnson; one granddaughter, India Johnson; one great granddaughter, Devyn Jackson; two brothers, Jerome Williams and Frank Williams; two sisters, Josephine Dennis and Patricia Williams; two sisters-in-law, Elaine Williams and Joanne Williams; her life-long partner, Michael Bowser; a godson, Hakeem Saddler; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other family members and friends.
