

Sharron Denise Brown

January 3, 1956 - February 23, 2016

On January 3, 1956 in Brooklyn, New York, Florence Anderson and Eric Coburn welcomed a precious gift of a baby girl they named Sharron Denise Anderson.

Sharron's early education started at P.S. 54 then she graduated from Prospect Heights High School. Sharron continued her education in various areas. Her passion for helping others contributed to obtaining her Nursing license. She had an elegance which prompt her to further her education and attend Flair Beauty Academy where she received her Cosmetology license. She enriched her education by always attending a class or seminar to keep abreast of the latest technology. All of her training contributed to her becoming gainfully employed by MCV Hospital for over 15 years where she never met a stranger. Wherever she was needed she delivered her assistance.

Sharron married Horace Alexander, Jr. in December 1973. From that union four beautiful daughters were born. She extended her love to all of the neighborhood children and helped raise them as her own. She was accomplished in knitting, crocheting and was well known for cooking meals for anyone who was hungry.

She was forever humble, trustworthy, compassionate and the matriarch of the family. Sharron lived a life of service to her family and her friends.

Sharron then married Louis Brown in April, 1999 where they remained married until his passing in December 2010.

Sharron was baptized in 1979 in Frankfurt Germany, she learned bible truths which fulfilled her life with great joy and determination to serve her God Jehovah. Her desire was to declare the Kingdom message, where life in paradise will bring blessings to all mankind.

Our beloved Sharron suddenly passed away on February 23, 2016. Leaving to cherish her memories: four daughters, Shanna Ragland (Kenneth), Tania Alexander, Nyette Alexander and Tiffany Alexander; sisters, Geraldine DeBerry, Shirley Coburn and Cheryl Darbouze; grandchildren, Ja'Shaun O'Neil, Nyheim Robinson, India Robinson, Miyonna Bells, Malik Bells, Kavon Ragland, Paiton Edmonds and Maurice Johnson, Jr.; great-grandchildren, Messiah Fobbs, Jace O'Neil, Kennedy O'Neil (March 2016); aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, a host of other relatives and friends.

Our love for our dear Sharron will remain forever in our hearts.

“ COUSIN SHARON WAS MY BIG COUSIN, BUT SHE WAS LIKE A MOM TO ME. FULL OF LOVE, WISDOM AND THAT'S WHY I GAVE HER LOVE BACK. IN THOSE REGARDS, SHE WAS JUST LIKE MY UNCLE, HER DADDY, THE LATE ERIC COBURN. I'M SO SORRY I WASN'T ABLE TO ATTEND HER FUNERAL DUE TO FINANCIAL REASONS. GOD BLESS HER SOUL. AND MAY SHE REST IN ETERNAL PEACE. MUCH LOVE(((((: AND PEACE(((((:

“ Sharron and I worked together at MCV for many years. I enjoyed working with her as her sense of humor, sweet temperament made the shift more pleasant. We are both from New York City and are close to the same age. When we were not too busy we enjoyed reliving our similar childhood experiences; double Dutch, roller skating, hide and go seek. We would enjoy talking about old TV shows and singing commercial jingles from the past. I'm am truly saddened to hear of her passing. She often talked about her girls and the grandchildren that she loved so much. My sincerest sympathy goes out to all of you. Sharron will be missed for sure.

“ Sharron's bright smile and outgoing spirit will be missed. As you seek God during this difficult time may you find comfort in knowing that Sharron loved her family. I have never met any of them but she would always talk about her grandson, her daughter and others. She always welcomed me with a smile and was interested in how I was doing.
Enjoy your new home Sharron and may Gods peace be with your family. Shaneeca Williams

“ There are indeed no words that could be said to completely ease this profound sense of loss you are experiencing as a family, but take comfort in the assurance that there is no safer place for you loved to be than in Jehovah's memory. Keep remembering that death is only a temporary interruption of life, look forward to seeing your loved one again because Jehovah has shown and will continue to show that he has yearning for the work of his own hand. Job 14: 13-15.

“ To the family of Sharron Denise Brown,
I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit." (Psalm 34:18) With sympathy,

“ Those we love leave us gifts in the form of memories that no one can take away. Wisdom that we can still recall. These are the things that we will cherish forever. May the family continue to look to Almighty God for comfort during this most stressful time since "He is close to the brokenhearted. He saves those who are crushed in spirit." Psalm 34:18

“ My deepest sympathies to the family. The loss of a loved one is bitterly painful. Although it causes feelings of hopelessness, there is hope. The Most promises that all of mankind will one day live in a paradise earth forever & at that time death will be no more.
(Rev.21:4; Isaiah 25:8) I hope that you allow these promises to let throw your burdens upon HIS shoulders as you endure this difficult time.
