

Sharron Denise Jennings

April 9, 1969 - November 12, 2020

Legacy of Love

Born Into Time: April 9, 1969

Born Into Eternity: November 12, 2020

Sharron Denise Goodnight Jennings was born to Hattie Owens and Tony Brown on April 9, 1969 in Richmond, Virginia. She came in the world with a beautiful smile that will remain in our hearts and minds forever. She was preceded in death by her grandmother, Mary Geneva Vance and brothers, Terrell Dominique Goodnight and Emmanuel Eddings.

She received her formal education from the Richmond Public School System and was a graduate of the Adult Learning Center. She worked hard for the certification she received.

Sharron accepted Christ at an early age. She was a member of Great Hope Baptist Church, in the heart of Church Hill. She held spiritual belief close to her heart and never wavered. She was a godly woman who touched souls as she spread the word of God. Sharron was courageous all the way to the end.

She married her best friend and life partner, Robert Lee Jennings in Richmond, Virginia on April 13, 2013. Their union blessed them with 6 children. Living in the heart of Richmond, she worked hard. She was a caring wife, proud mother and adoring grandmother. Her children were the light of her life. Showing her unwavering love and devotion, she provided for her family as well as others. There was nothing she would not do for you.

Sharron formerly worked at Social Services and at a construction company. Even though she was a private person, she was also a go-getter. She was a woman who wore many titles. As an entrepreneur, she started "Goodnight Cleaning Services." Sharron's biggest accomplishments were the care she provided to others. There was nothing she couldn't do, whether it was instilling love and responsibility in a child or laying bricks to build a house. Sharron loved planting flowers in her yard. She had a green thumb when it came to her garden. She also loved putting puzzles together. She had so much patience when it came to the boxes with 5000 pieces in them. It was a challenge she loved taking on. Sharron loved to travel, as long as it was in her own car.

Her selfless spirit and love for family and friends was demonstrated throughout the community by her open door policy and willingness to help others. She was the most caring person you would ever meet. Sharron was the caretaker for many family members and made sure they knew to go in the right direction. She had a heart of gold, the wisdom of a college graduate and a legacy we will carry on. Sharron's personality and glorious smile was certain to brighten your day. She will be missed, but not forgotten.

In her leisure, she enjoyed puzzling, gardening, and tending to her plants in-between traveling to one of her favorite spots, Williamsburg Plantation. She also welcomed the daily phone calls with her friends and the early mornings seeing her husband off to work with his coffee and packed lunch.

Death is not to be feared as the absolute end, because the dead who are "in God's memory" will be resurrected.

Our beloved Sharron gained her wings on November 12, 2020 peacefully after sharing her love and light with the world for 51 well lived years. Sharron is survived by her adoring husband, Robert Lee Jennings of seven years; caring children. La'Sheenia Goodnight, NaShelle Goodnight, Keeshawda Goodnight and Dominique Goodnight; stepchildren, Sharon Jennings, Chquitta Jennings and Robert Coley; grandchildren, Robert Goodnight, Roquan Waller, Ray'Naiya Fitzgerald, DeMario Murphy, Raymond Fitzgerald and Tyrone Beasley, III; siblings, Antione Goodnight, Elvon Peay and Tiffon Goodnight; numerous in-laws, nieces, nephews, other relatives; devoted caring friends, Sheila, Gloria, Deborah, Velma, Sharon and Linda; along with other friends and neighbors.
