

Shavon M. Everett

October 2, 1980 - July 7, 2008

On Monday, July 7, 2008, SHAVON MONIQUE MONIQUE EVERETT, daughter of the late Thomas Everett Jr. and Karen Benita Stewart, departed this life after a lengthy illness. She was born on October 2, 1980 in Baltimore, Maryland. Shavon received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She was enrolled in the ROTC program and was a member of the Color Guard at Fairmount-Harford High School. Whenever there was an event at the school she was the Color Guard who led the march, which made her grandmother very proud. Shavon worked for several temp. agencies. She later became employed at a car dealership on Belair Road as a secretary. When she was just a little girl she prayed heartfelt prayers for her family. Later she was baptized by Rev. Nathaniel Higgs and became a member of the Southern Baptist Church. She enjoyed listening to the Psalms of the Bible, and her favorite was the 23rd Psalm. When hearing the 23rd Psalm, she always had a smile on her face. Shavon knew that God would provide, direct and protect her path. Shavon gave birth to a beautiful baby girl named "Treasure" on April 21, 2005 despite the fact that medical doctors said she could never have children. "What a Blessing from the Lord." Shavon made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was caring, kind, and showed compassion for others especially for her devoted grandmother, Marie. Shavon loved children; whenever you saw her you would see her with someone's child. Also, she devoted herself to her godchild Ne-Ne whom she loved dearly. She also enjoyed music, just having fun, spending time with her family and friends, she loved to read and solving various crossword puzzles, taking time with children and helping out whenever she could, and her favorite color was pink. Shavon was known as "Big Shay", "Shiesty", and "Soldier". She enjoyed hanging out with her favorite cousins Lil Lee, Latiea, and Miesha. Shavon's father Thomas Everett Jr., mother Karen Benita Stewart, brother Marlin Stewart, and uncles Bruce Stewart and Gregory Everett all preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Treasure Amarri Ty'Shaye'one Scott; grandmother, Marie Everett; grandfather, Thomas Everett; three sisters, Chantrice Benita Everett, Iesha Stewart and Shantell Wright; brother, Willie Stewart; three special aunts, Lina Everett-Dashields (known as Aunt Fay), Anglea Everett and Frances Carr; and a host of aunts and uncles; niece, Chantrice McCready; nephew, Dontavius Everett; cousins, North Carolina family members, and many friends.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences for the loss of Ms.Everett. One of my favorite scriptures is John 5:28,29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May you receive much comfort from this loving promise found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Everett, I offer my sincere sympathy. The sorrow you are experiencing now will soon be alleviated. God promises at John 5:28,29 that all those in the memorial tombs will soon hear his voice and come out. He also lets us know, at John 3:16 and John 17:3 what we must do to witness this grand event. May these wonderful promises give you comfort now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry that you lost your loved one. Some months have passed, but I know her memory is still fresh in your hearts, because we never forget our loved ones. One day this pain will be a thing of the past, because God will end all sickness and death, and bring about a world free free from sorrow. Isaiah 65:17 makes this promise from Jehovah God: "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart. So even the memory of the pain we go through in this life will no longer come to mind. After which our loved ones who have died will be brought back to life in the ressurection. John 5:28,29 May these wonderful promises from God help to comfort and strengthen you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
