

Shawn Clayton Pressley Jr.

August 20, 1992 - December 21, 2020

Shawn Clayton Pressley Jr., loving son of Shawn Pressley Sr., and Danielle Gasque, was born on a bright and sunny day on August 20, 1992 in Baltimore, Maryland. Shawn departed this earthly life to one of God's heavenly mansions on December 21, 2020.

As a boy, Shawn was raised in a loving home. education in the Baltimore City Public Schools, and graduated from Frederick Douglass High School in 2011. After graduating, he worked for FedEx and a Contractor for Johns Hopkins Medical Center. Shawn though he was the star of the team as the quarterback. Shawn enjoyed spending time with his son, who he loved more than anything and his family. He especially loved family gatherings, where he ate and snacked on junk food.

Shawn was affectionately called Dink, Juvie, and Lil Shawn by his family and peers.

Everyone who knew Shawn, knew that he was soft spoken, loved his family and wanted nothing, but to raise his son. Shawn loved people and accepted them for who they were. With his beautiful light brown eyes, Shawn was animated with jokes, being silly and much laughter. Family gathering were important to Shawn, although he would spend hours late expecting food that was long gone. One of his favorite lines was, "dang you didn't save me any food" and then he would laugh.

Shawn was preceded in death by: His Uncle, Clarence Temple Jr.;

Grandmothers, Joanne Davis and Martha Bridges; Grandfather Clarence Temple; Great Grandparents, Irvin Clayton and Emma Smith, Rosa Lindsey, Leroy Pete and Bertha Lee Pressley and Norriss Davis.
