“ To The Family & Friends of Shawntae Allen, I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear love one. It can be especially hard to cope with when we loose someone so young. The Bible teaches about a future time when those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29). Continue to draw close to the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Losing a loved one in death is something so hard to come to terms with. You have my deepest sympathy. Put your faith and trust in our loving heavenly father. Pour out your hearts to him in prayer, because he knows your pain and sorrow; and is always there to comfort us when we go through trials. This was never God"s purpose for us, and one day he will end sickness and death forever. Isaiah 25:8 lets us know that he will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." The bible at Daniel 12:2 and John 5:28,29 lets us know that many of those who are asleep in the dust will wake up, because they will hear the voice of Jesus, and they will come up out of the memorial tombs. May you be comforted by the hope of the ressurection, as well as of your precious memories of your loved one.##imported-begin##R Jonson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible rightly calls death our "enemy", it also declares that our "last enemy" will be destroyed.(1 Corinthians 15:26) There is hope for our dead loved ones. Acts 24:15 informs that "there is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength from the Bible's hope of your loved one returning to life.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

“ It has been four months since youe loved one past,and I know that you are still missing him;however I want you to know that at Acts 24:15 the Bible speaks of a resurrection and we can be confident in Jehovahs'word because at John 17:17 Jesus said that Gods' word is truth.So may the God of truth and all comfort continue to be with you.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Dear family, losing our love ones is hard to deal with. We sometimes wonder and ask ourselves if our love one is still suffering. But take comfort at Ecclesiastes 9:5 tells us; 'for the living are conscious that they will die; but as for the dead, they are conscious of nothing at all.' Whatever illness your love one experienced, they are no longer in pain. They are in a deep sleep awaiting the resurrection hope mentioned at John 5:28,29 where all those in the memorial tomb will hear Jesus Christ voice and come out. In order for us to be there to see and greet them, we must take time to study the bible, John 17:3 'this means everlasting life, their taking in knowledge of you, the only true God, and of the one whom you sent forth, Jesus Christ. My deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Gonsalves##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to the Allen family. When death separates us from our loved ones, especially one so young, deep sorrow can result; that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26, Daniel 12:2 and Revelation 21:4. Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
