

Sheila Arlene Jacobs

September 5, 1940 - July 29, 2002

On July 29, 2002, following a lengthy illness, Sheila Jacobs went home to be with the Lord. Mrs. Jacobs was the seventh born on September 5, 1940 to the late Arthur Scott and Ethel Jacobs. Sheila was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. As a young adult she accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior. Ms. Jacobs was employed as a domestic worker throughout several hospitals within the Baltimore regional area for more than twenty years. Sheila had a gift of love that seemed to inspire everyone that she came in contact with. She was kind and always had that listening ear and sweet smile; as if no matter what, everything will be all right. She always enjoyed sitting around with her neighbors and talking about the "Good Old Days". She was gifted with a beautiful voice; sometimes she would just sing her church gospels. She was a great inspiration to everyone she came in contact with. Sheila leaves to cherish in loving memory four children, three daughters, Joyce Jacobs, Monique Jackson and Catrice Jacobs; one son, Maurice Jacobs, Sr., one son-in-law, Dearl Jackson; seven grandchildren, Maurice Jacobs, Jr., Christopher Jacobs, Timothy Oaks, Torie Hicks, Shawnta, Jackson, Kornesha Braxton, Christian Jackson; three brothers, Randolph Jacobs, Nathaniel Jacobs and Melburne Jacobs; one sister, Ruth Bowman and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
