

Sheila Bell Sparks

June 11, 1945 - January 11, 2003

On June 11, 1945, Sheila Bell Sparks, daughter of Lucille Baker and the late Charles Burley, was born in Baltimore, Maryland. Sheila was the third child of the family of seven, one of whom preceded her in death, James Rhodes. Sheila was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and received a G.E.D. She attended Baltimore City Community College and received a degree in Sociology. She worked for the Maryland Department of Social Services for over twenty years until retirement due to her illness. Sheila had two children Darneice and Brian Wheatley, who were the joys of her life. On June 11, 1990, she was married to Donald Spark. She was a devoted and fun-loving wife, mother and grandmother who welcomed all with a warm smile. Sheila always opened her heart and was very kind to everyone. She often shared words of wisdom with her children and their friends. Despite her illness, she remained strong willed and her devotion to her family never diminished. On January 11, 2003, Sheila was called home to her Lord and Savior. God saw that she had struggled enough and lifted her home. While the physical presence of her body is gone, she will never be forgotten and will be sorely missed by all. Sheila leaves to cherish their memories: her loving and devoted husband, Donald Sparks; two children, Darniece and Brian Wheatley; one daughter-in-law, Yolanda Wheatley; fourteen grandchildren; seven loving sisters, Brenda, Vineca, Ingrid, Denise, Janice, Annette and Louise; three sisters-in-law, four brothers-in-law, five special friends, Jackie, Mildred, Portia, Sheila and Valerie and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To The Family Of Sheila Bell Sparks: Please accept my deepest sympathy. Death is such an enemy of life, and although it is painful, we all have to face it. Here is a passage that I hope brings comfort to the family found at Acts 24:15, which states: "And have hope towards God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust." This is a very comforting passage that I find very comforting, because I know soon I will see my loved one again. I hope this passage bring solace to your family. With sympathy.##imported-begin##Von Holley##imported-end##

“ Your loved one served in many roles throughout her life. She was a daughter, sister, wife, mother, niece and friend. May each memory of her be a pleasant one, warming your hearts when you think about her. Just know that others are keeping your family in prayer. May God Bless You All. “ To: Brian and Darniece and family. You do not have to cry for Mommie, you do not have to weep; for she did not die you see, She is just simply asleep; She is in a place of calm, a place of serenity; A place of peacefulness, her father has prepared for her, She's gone from this place, that she will now call home; Although she is not here with you, still you are not alone; The love that you shared will lead, the memories will follow too; Always know deep in your hearts, that she is still here with you; As she is laid to rest, this was a part of her Father's plan for he alone knows best.##imported-begin##Angelisa White##imported-end##
