

Sheila T Matthews

August 9, 1957 - September 13, 2024

SHEILA THERESA MATTHEWS was a strong, kind, big heart & smart woman. She was a friend, a daughter, an aunt, a sister and the best mother in the world.

She was a premature baby who never crawled. Sheila was one of the first black kids to attend and graduate from Walbrook Senior High School in 1974, which her son Chris would attend 2001-2005 and graduate from. She got her bachelor's and master's degrees at Coppin State and University of Baltimore.

Sheila helped people for most of her life. Through her career of social work at the YWCA, Cal Ripken Learning Center, St. Vincent DePaul of Baltimore and Sunrise Senior Living to name a few, she helped so many people get back on their feet. There was never a time when Sheila would go out, and was not recognized. People would say "Mrs. Matthews thank you so much for helping me or helping me and my kids get our life back." The encounters happened so much that her kids thought they had a famous mother.

Her big heart went outside of her career. Sheila helped people any way that she could. She would give the best advice that she could for bad situations, and she gave her last dime to help her family & friends in their time of need; going as far as to let her loved ones live with her when they needed a place to stay.

Sheila poured into her children, Chris & Bella; her sisters & brothers, Vanda, Treva, Trena, Reese, Keith, Maurice, Junior & Hermetta; and her nieces & nephews, Dria, Tareva, Shaurniece, Latrice, Terrelle, Shontelle, Devin, Dawniece, Nookie, Nia and Shelby. She loved her father Jerome Joseph Matthews with all her heart unconditionally & her mothers who gave her love, strength, wisdom, community & comfort, Elaine, Ray Ray, Francis and Delores. She also leaves many aunts, uncles & cousins.
