

Sheila E. Porter- Jackson

April 29, 1956 - August 27, 2016

Sheila Estelle Porter Jackson, daughter of the late Anthony Eugene and Barbara Mae Porter was born April 29, 1956 in Baltimore Maryland. On August 27th Jesus came took her hand and lead her on home.

She received her education in the Baltimore City School System. After high school she went to work for the C and P Telephone Company. It was there that she met the late John F. Jackson, and out of that union her beloved son Michael Jerome Jackson was born. After 20 years she retired, but continued to do light work at St. Agnes Hospital and the Maryland Cup Company.

Sheila gave her life to Christ at the Maranatha Bible Fellowship CC Church and remained a faithful member there for over 20 years. She loved to praise God; she sang on the choir and danced with her sisters and her mother with the group Faith.

"Stell" or "Aunt Sheka" as she was lovingly known, loved music, all kinds of music and always had a song in her heart and on her lips even if she never knew the words.

She met the love of her life, Charles Jackson and married him in 2010. They were best friends and they partied together at home or out at the shows.

Sheila loved to eat, going to the movies and playing chess and cards. She really loved her family - all of them, - and they all loved her too! She made friends everywhere she went. Sheila was well loved by all and will be greatly missed.

Sheila was preceded in death by her oldest brother Anthony Porter.

She leaves to mourn her husband Charles, one son Michael, daughter in law Yassmeen, grand-daughter Mishay, two daughters Sheri and Mary, two brothers Edward (Deborah), Robert (Sharon), three sisters Donna, Jeanette, and Barbara, and a host of other family members and friends, and her best friend Joanne Branch.
