

Sheila R. Williams

April 16, 1954 - November 15, 2004

Sheila R. Williams (nee Ashby), daughter of the late William Ashby and Elizabeth Dorsey was born on April 16, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. After the death of her mother in 1960, she was placed in the custody of her Uncle Charles Sr. and Aunt Anna Dorsey. She was reared by them until her early teens when she returned to stay with her father. Sheila departed this life on November 15, 2004 after a short illness. She preceded in death her only sister, the late Angela Ashby. "Mommie Girl", as she is affectionately known, received her education in Baltimore City Public School System. In her late teens a book binary company employed her. She later worked at various positions throughout the city. During her earlier years, she was a faithful member of St. Paul Baptist Church. She married the late James Williams and from that union five children was born. "Mommie Girl" made numerous friends wherever she went. Her smile was very contagious and could light up any dark day. She will be remembered for her quick wit, and the ability to converse and share knowledge on so many aspects of life. She enjoyed discussing the bible and sharing the tenets of God with her children. They remember her quoting scriptures and sharing the pearls of the Word concerning Godly living. This unique lady loved to entertain the kindness of strangers, traveling to new places, playing card games with family, listening to country music, and watching the food channel. For the last four years, Sheila was a faithful volunteer at HERO and JIVE Clinic by providing a helping hand or sharing her own experiences in inspirational speeches. Everyone who knew her will sincerely miss Sheila. She was always a true and a devoted family woman. She leaves to mourn: four daughters, Terry McCoy, Ronnell Ashby, Michael Loney, Sheila Williams; four sons, Dwayne Williams, James Williams, Jeremiah Williams, Jacob Williams; three brothers, Ricky Duvall, Michael Dorsey and Joseph White; fifteen grandchildren, two nephews, two nieces and a host of cousins and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the Family of Ms. Williams, Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. At times such as these the scriptures can be of much comfort. Daniel 12:2 says "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life". Please find solace in this scripture, knowing that you will see your loved one again.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your dear loved one. The loss of a mother is a terrible trauma to the children. The Bible gives us some comfort in this regard at Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up. May you continue to find comfort from the scriptures.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##
