

Sheila Ann Stagg

July 18, 1947 - September 8, 2025

SHEILA ANN STAGG was born on July 18, 1947, in Baltimore to Agnes Brooks and Ernest McCormack. She departed this life on September 8, 2025, at her home in Baltimore.

Sheila was educated at St. Pius Catholic School and Havre de Grace High School. She later attended and graduated from St. Agnes Nursing School. Sheila was employed by St. Agnes Hospital as a neo-natal nurse for nearly fifty years.

She and her family loved to join her co-workers on yearly trips to shop in New York City. She and her husband Len also traveled to the Longaberger store in Ohio. She was devoted to the Church, running the food pantries at St. Pius V and St. Peter Claver for many years. She also sang in the choir. She loved the many pets that the Staggs brought into their home. She loved baking and shopping, in stores and online, especially for Christmas.

Sheila was always ready to lend a helping hand to everyone that she could. She was strong in her faith and love for her family. She was the rock and foundation of the Stagg and Brooks families. Sheila was one of the sweetest, kindest, most gentle people anyone could meet. She was a Mom to everyone. If you needed anything, she was there, no questions asked. It was who she was. She always had your back. All who knew her loved her. No job was too dirty for her. She would jump in feet first to get done whatever needed doing.

God knows that He has a strong and faithful helper coming to work with him. Sheila leaves to cherish her memory: her husband of 57 years, Leonard Stagg; her children, Paulette Greenblatt, Michele Duncan, and Eric Stagg, Sr.; her grandchildren, Eric Stagg, Jr., Edie Medlin, and Adrian Greenblatt; her great grandchild, Laiela Stagg; her sons-in-law, Garrick Greenblatt and Gregory Duncan; her brother, Keith Ruffin, and numerous relatives and friends.

“ MOM...you were a constant light that kept me going through my upbringing!! Always there for me from day one. Accepted me as part of the family and treated me and the kids no differently than your biological kids. You were and will forever be-MOM & GRANDMA SHEILA!! I am so appreciative of all your lessons, love, kindness, care, concern and MOTIVATION!! You are and will be missed. Love always and forever-Tia, LaNiece, Deonte', Kendri' and McKenna 💜🦋
