

Sheila R. Thompson

March 11, 1954 - March 26, 2020

Sheila Thompson, daughter of the late Vermell Thompson, Sr. and the late Doretha Thompson, was born on March 11, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on March 26, 2020 at the Medstar Good Samaritan Hospital due to a long term illness.

Sheila gave her life Christ at Upon This Rock Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Carrington D. Ash, Pastor.

Sheila was educated in the Baltimore City public schools. Upon leaving school, she became a homemaker.

Sheila loved cooking, watching cooking shows, and the History Channel. Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy was her favorite shows. She enjoyed reading, playing pinochle, and spending time with her family.

Sheila was a strong woman who taught us how to be strong no matter the storms in life.

She leaves to rejoice in her loving memory the love of her life Frank Pannell, who preceded her in death, her children, Bryant Thompson, Varshay Trice (Howard Trice Sr.) and Lorne Baylor.

She also leaves in her loving memory her siblings, Vermell Thompson, Jr, Tyrone Thompson, preceded in death (Cynthia) Michael Thompson, Anderson D. Thompson (Kim) Anthony Thompson (Joyce, preceded in death), and yvette D. Racks (Charles); nine grandkids, six great grandkids, a multitude of nieces and nephews, and a host of friends.
