

Sheila Renee Thompson

May 13, 1936 - March 30, 2020

Shelia Thompson, daughter of the late Vermell Thompson, Sr. and the late Doretha Thompson, was born on March 11, 1954, in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on March 26, 2020 at the MedStar Good Samaritan Hospital due to a long term illness.

Shelia gave her life to Christ at Upon This Rock Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Carrington D. Ash, Pastor.

Shelia was educated in the Baltimore City public schools. Upon leaving school, she became a homemaker.

Shelia loved cooking, watching cooking shows, and the History Channel. Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy was her favorite shows. She enjoyed reading, playing pinochle, and spending time with her family.

Shelia was a strong woman who taught us how to be strong no matter the storms in life.

Shelia leaves to rejoice in her loving memory the love of her life Frank Pannell, who preceded her in death, her children, Bryant Thompson, Varshay Trice (Howard Trice Sr.) and Lorne Baylor.

She also leaves in her loving memory her siblings, Vermell Thompson, Jr., Tyrone Thompson, preceded in death (Cynthia), Michael Thompson, Anderson D. Thompson (Kim), Anthony Thompson (Joyce, preceded in death), and Yvette D. Racks (Charles); nine grandkids, six great grandkids, a multitude of nieces and nephews, and a host of friends.
