

Shelia Naomi Freeman

July 13, 1948 - April 20, 2013

The daughter of the late Howard and Mamie H.I. Freeman, SHELIA NAOMI FREMAN was born on July 13, 1948 in the city of Philadelphia, Pa. She attended the public school system in Philadelphia. She later moved to New York City where she married the late Wadell Rucker and had a son, Windell. After the passing of her husband and the birth of her daughter Shelia, Shelia relocated to Columbia, Maryland where she had two more daughters, Ronnie and January.

Once settled, she began working at a day care facility. Shelia found her passion caring for others. In the early 80's, Shelia started working for Providence Adult Day Care, caring for adults with mental and physical disabilities. In 1985, Shelia joined the Eastern Stars and found a greater understanding of her spiritual being. She continued to portray the noble principles which were incorporated in the lives of all Eastern Star members. In 1988, Shelia was certified by the Department of Aging as a homecare provider for the elderly, in which she performed this passion until 2019, when she was unable to continue. On April, 20, 2013, Shelia was called home to be with Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

Mourning her passing are: her sisters, Deotha Woodburn and Dethsula Graves-Bey; her brother Rodney Graves-Bey; her best friend, Brenda Jarrett; her four children, Windell Rucker, Shelia Weaver-Williams, Ronnie Coleman-

Snow and January Rogers; eleven grandchildren, Windell, Shanika, Shayla, Shanell, Courtney, Dominekk, Erikka, Devaughn, Tatiyana, Michael, and Tavon; her great-grandchild, Malik; one aunt, Gladys and uncle Jim and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends; all of which she adored.

“ To the family and friends of Shelia Naomi Freeman I send my deepest condolences to you. In the Bible book of Ecclesiastes 9:4 it states: "For the living are conscious that they will die; but as for the dead, they are conscious of nothing at all" which brings out the point that the deceased do not feel pain, sadness, troubles or anything at all as if living--death can be liken to a sleep state of mind. However all deceased persons have the opportunity to live again through the means of Jesus Christ death which gave all mankind a hope. In the Bible book Of Revelation 21:4 it gives the promise of: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." The scripture demonstrates that in a soon time period death will never again occur, no pain of death. I hope that these scriptures have brought you comfort and hope to see your loved one again.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
