

Shelia M. Keeling

September 23, 1947 - January 6, 2010

SHELIA M. KEELING daughter of the late Leon Sr. and Mae Keeling was born on September 23, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on January 6, 2010 after a lengthy illness. As a teenager, Shelia joined the Job Corps Services. There she received her high school diploma. After receiving her diploma, she was gainfully employed as a bank teller for the Mercantile Bank of downtown Baltimore. She later decided to further her education and enrolled in Baltimore City Community College. Upon completion, in 1984, Shelia received an Associate of Arts Degree. She was then employed by the U.S. Postal Service (downtown office) as a mail processing clerk. She worked there for twenty-five years of dedicated service until her health began to fail. After Shelia accepted God in her life she continued to build a personal and spiritual relationship with God throughout her life. She attended The Church of Christ, where she received a certificate of completion for a Special Bible Correspondence Course. Shelia made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone. She enjoyed playing cards, poetry writing, watching her favorite TV shows, music, dancing, cooking and eating (especially Joker's fried chicken, Theresa's sweet potato pies and Aunt Flumpty's homemade pound cakes). Shelia was a wonderful friend and most of all a very loving and devoted family member. Shelia leaves to cherish her memory: her godchildren, Shawn Clarke, Sharika Griffin and Mia Miller; three dear aunts, Edna Colmon of Albany, Georgia, Elouise Griffin and Sybil Washington both of Baltimore, Md.; a host of cousins, whom some addressed her as “Aunt Sheila;” a loving and devoted goddaughter, Sherran Griffin ; one very blessed, dedicated and loving cousin, Dr. Avon Lee Colman; special friends, Pat White, Jessica Powell, Stephanie Brinkley and Kendra Foster. Her family members who preceded her in death are her parents Leon and Mae Keeling, her one daughter Denise McKinnon, brother Leon Keeling Jr. and her grandmother “Sarah.”

Tribute Wall

“ Shelia M. Keeling

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Ms. Keeling's family and friends. When death separates us from our loved ones deep sorrow can result. Please be assured that "God cares for you" and promises to do away with that "enemy", death and all the pain it causes, according to 1 Peter 5:7, 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the resurrection hope by stating: "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never a part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts 24:15 promises that there is going to be a resurrection to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy in the passing of your loved one. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will indeed live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you find comfort and strength in God's Word the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ In Deepest Sympathy At this time of loss it seems so hard to find a way to express the heartfelt thoughts that words could never say, but may it bring you comfort to ease your sorrow, too, to know that you have many friends who sympathize with you##imported-begin##Clearnce Hailstock##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM