“ *I am a resident of Lorien and when I was told about Sheila I could not believe it. Oh my God we talk about the Lord faithfully. She would walk around the halls jumping out scaring people. She came in my room every morning in her loud voice, get up, get out of bed. If you didn't want to, you got up anyway, unless you didn't feel. Well Sheila's gone home now with her Father, looking at us with that voice of hers saying yall shut up with that noise and rejoice over me. Thank-you. Sheila I love you, I miss you. “ Dont grieve for me for now im free.Im following a path that god has laid for me.I took his hand when i heard him call.I turned my back and left it all.I could not stay another day.To laugh , to love,to work or play.Task left undone must stay that way.I found my peace at the end of the day.If my parting has left a void,Then fill it with remembered joys. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.Pherhaps my time seemed all too brief.Dont lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me.God wanted me now; he set me free To all who knew and loved me . This was a poem that i shared with shelia and she really did like it.##imported-begin##Bonnie Britt##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in Jehovah the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I know how it feels to lose someone close to you. The bible helps us to appreciate that all those in memorial tombs will come out due to the resurrection (John 5:28,29). What a wonderful day that will be.##imported-begin##kari jackson##imported-end##

“ I remember the first day Sheila started as a nursing assistant at Lorien Riverside and that was the day that our friendship and bond started. Sheila made it a commitment to care and love every patient and staff member that she came in contact with and carried that commitment to the last day of her work. Her struggles through her own health were never an issue and her patients were always first. As her struggles became burdens for her she lived that commitment through phone calls and cards that we all participated in. We were honored to have her come to Riverside this past June and celebrate Nursing Assistant Week with all of us. She was a most precious and special gift sent to us and made such a huge difference in so many lives. One particular fond and funny memory I have is Sheila making her weekly visit to my office asking me to give her a raise (and the amount was always reaching for the stars). If she didn't make that visit I had to find out why and usually it was because she was preoccupied with someone else's needs. That was "OUR SHEILA"! I will miss her, I loved her like family. We hugged each other, cried with each other and said our goodbyes in June believe it or not and I am so grateful to have had that opportunity. Although she continued a brave and difficult battle the next few months I know we both knew June was our last visit together and shared our love and admiration from then on by phone calls and cards. She never missed a beat telling me she had her freshly pressed uniform in the closet ready to come back to work and I would have taken her back in a heart beat, I will miss my friend and coworker! I love you Sheila! Love , hugs and kisses
