

Shelia Ann Washington

July 14, 1962 - September 8, 2025

Our beloved Shelia Ann Washington, born July 14th, 1962, in Richmond, Virginia, peacefully joined the angels of heaven and entered eternal rest on September 8th, 2025. Shelia was preceded in death by her father, Floyd Roosevelt Washington Jr. And her brother, Jeffery Jerome Washington.

As a child, Shelia was baptized in 1971 at Cedar Street Memorial Church. She received her education in the Richmond Public School System, where she attended John F. Kennedy High School. There, she participated as a cheerleader throughout her high school years. She went on to further her education at Roanoke Business College, where she majored in accounting. Shelia later also attended Johnson Beauty Academy for cosmetology, where she further developed her love of doing hair.

Anyone who knew Shelia knows that she was always laughing, joking, and a joy to be around. She was the life of every party and always wanted to help and care for others. Shelia had the pleasure of having one child, Benesha Washington, who was the light of Shelia's life. Shelia loved her daughter more than anyone in the world and was so proud of Benesha and her many accomplishments.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories: Her mother, Rosetta Washington; her loving and devoted daughter, Benesha Washington (Benesha's father, Benjamin Shelton); her brother, Anthony Washington (Angela); her sisters, Marilyn Washington, Marlene Washington, Cynthia Royster (Darryl) and Marshell; One devoted uncle, Robert Lee Chiles; sister in law, Juanita Washington; a host of nieces (two devoted), Tiera Washington and Shadaysa Thomas; Nephews (two devoted), Deangelo Washington and Darryl Washington; and a host of devoted cousins and friends.
