“ Shelly you will be truly missed by many cousin. I keep thinking about grown up with you, Kelly amd Rachael. I remember all those times of Mr. James disciplining us as kids and your mom always taking up for me when I got in trouble in school. Always saving me was my mother. Friday is going to be so hard for me to say my last goodbye's. I love you Shelly andi will do my best to watch out for your sisters. Rest in paradise Shelly

“ I have been blessed to share some of life's pleasures with you Shelly. Through thick and thin, along with the good days and not so good days, I will always remember the loving times that we shared. You will always be cherished, and loved by me. Shelly is certainly one of the most wonderful and well-meaning friends that I have ever had. You will be missed immensely by me and by all that have been lucky enough to have been befriended by you. Loving you always.....Allen K.
