SHELTON ORAN JONES was born on April 26, 1952, the oldest son of the late Harold and Mary Jones in Baltimore, Maryland. Shelton was preceded in death by his sister, Latricia Kearney and brother-in-law, John Kearney, Jr. On Saturday, December 17, 2005, he responded to his call to eternal rest, after a lengthy illness. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and was a graduate of Baltimore City College High School. Many years ago, he assisted at-risk youth as the director of a children's group home. Most recently, he was employed with Aramark until his health declined. At an early age, he confessed Christ as his Lord and personal Savior. He joined the New Unity Baptist Church under the guidance of the late Reverend James S. Williams. Shelton made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend. Shelton was a devoted father to Shelton Jones, Jr., Erica Crenshaw, Moniqua Jones and Troy Scott. He was a loving family man who was skillful and believed that with Christ all things were possible. He instilled strong family values and morals in his, children as well as his nieces and nephews. Many family members can still recant the days fishing with Shelton. He was always willing to lend a hand and was often known for his phrase, "I'll see what I can do." He will be sorely missed by all that knew and loved him. He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted children, Shelton Jones Jr. of Baltimore, Erica Crenshaw of Coral Springs, Florida, Moniqua Jones of Baltimore, and Troy Scott of Baltimore; two stepdaughters, Sharonda and Erica; his

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr. Jones, Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However we can find comfort during these times from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. Look to him as your source of comfort.##imported-begin##G. Winston##imported-end##

“ I send my sincerest condolences to family and close friends of Mr. Jones. Please, remember that true comfort can only come from the Bible. John 5:28,29 shows us that Jesus has the power and will soon resurrect our loved ones. Also, Revelation 21:4 shows us that there will be no more pain, sickness, or death in the near future. May you be comforted.##imported-begin##K Adams##imported-end##
