“ Darlene, Ree Ree was such a beautiful girl and her memory will always be cherished. At John 5:28,29 Jesus said in part "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...". This scripture points to a hope of a resurrection. A standing up from death to life. It gives hope that one day many who have died will come to life again. May this hope bring you comfort always.##imported-begin##Ronnie##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ As hard as it may be to understand ,the truth remains that God is in control of all things.We never want to see our loved ones leave us , but God is the only one that has the final call as to when we depart this life.While we will all miss Ree Ree, we must rest in our belief that God called her home and that she is in a better place. While anger and grief surround our hearts, we can all find comfort in knowing that those that took her away from her loved ones will have to answer to God in the end.Rest in peace Ree Ree. We love you.##imported-begin##nikki gardner##imported-end##

“ To "Willamena" and family: I know that you don't understand why Ree-Ree is gone and why she was taken away so suddenly, but only GOD knows. I know that might not comfort your heart right now because you and your family are still trying to figure out, "Why her, why not somebody else?" We don't know the answers to the questions that we have. Sometimes it seems as though GOD takes only the good ones and leaves the bad ones here. But some questions are not for us to ask. I don't have many words of comfort because I have never been in you shoes that you are traveling in now. GOD is the only one who knows how to comfort you at this time of need. When all of the phone calls stop and all of the friends stop visiting you, it's going to be on the strength of you and family, with GOD's help, that will bring you out of your sorrow. Having said that, I will continue to keep you and your family in my prayers.##imported-begin##Trish Johnson March West Receptionist##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. Our family finds much comfort from God's Word the Bible. I want to share such comfort with you. "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing."- 1 Corinthians 15:26 So death is an enemy that separates us from our loved ones. God promises us that it will not always be this way. We have the hope of being with them. "Your dead ones will live... They will rise up." Isaiah 26:19 They will rise to a peaceful earth. -"The righteous will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it.- Psalm 37:29 May these promises give you much strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Sometimes it is hard for us to understand why some things must be, for in his love and wisdom our father has planned beyond all of our powers to see. There are many things that take place in this life that we can not understand, so we each must learn to trust Jesus, and be guided by his ever loving hand.
