

Shermaine S. Morris

October 20, 1959 - March 13, 2017

Shermaine Sheely-Morris, daughter of Jack Sheely and the late Ida Lou Sheely was born on October 20, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on March 13, 2017 after a lengthy illness.

Shermaine received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She was a proud graduate of Patterson High School Class of 1978, where she was involved in sports, softball being her favorite. She loved music, gardening and volunteered at Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center a year before becoming an employee. She became employed at JHBVMC in Environmental Services and remained there for 20 years until her illness forced early retirement. She was a dedicated employee. She walked to work in a blizzard and stayed at the hospital for 5 days because others could not make it to work and because of this dedication she received a plaque for Employee of the Year. What a proud moment for her. Shermaine loved to travel and her favorite place was the beach. She loved the sunshine.

She met and married the late Harold Hery Morris and they remained together for over 20 years.

Shermaine made numerous friends and will be sincerely missed. She was a true friend and was devoted to her children and grandchildren.

She leaves to mourn: two daughters, Shernice S. Mundell and Teela S. Sheely; four grandchildren (The Ducks), Q'wame D. Mundell, Kaiya S. Mundell, Carter A. Brunson and London G. Sheely; seven siblings, Ella Broadway, Jack Sheely Jr. (deceased), Eddie Sheely (deceased), Ida Sheely, Gloria Sheely, Shirley Smith (George Smith Brother-in-law), and Willie Sheely (deceased); two godchildren, Donye Miles (Jermel son-in-law) and Gerard Carroll; her canine companion, Baby Sheely; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
