

Sherman L. Brown

July 7, 1946 - August 27, 2010

Sherman Lee Brown, son of the late Morgan and Virginia Brown was born on July 7, 1946 in Alexandria. Virginia.

On August 27, 2010, as the evening started to slip in upon him, God reached out his mighty hands, wrapped his most powerful arms around Sherman, and silently took him to his home on high where there will be no more sickness, pain or suffering.

Sherman was baptized at an early age in the Shenandoah River of West Virginia by Grandfather Reverend Rhodye Butler. He received his education in the District of Columbia Public Schools where he graduated from Eastern High School. He moved to Baltimore at the age of seventeen and later attended Coppin State College where he obtained his degree in Sociology.

He worked as a clinical Engineer for MedStar Hospital for over 40 years and continued to work there until he became ill. He attended the Kodak School in Rochester, New York to enhance his career. He also completed a course in "Principles of Servicing Diagnostic X-Ray Systems. Sherman loved the work that he did because that meant that he was able to help someone else.

Sherman was a man of many smiles, one who loved life and the people around him. He always had a word of advice for the young men that crossed his path with emphases upon how to walk and talk like strong men. He was a leader of the Royal Rangers (Mentoring group to young boys) at Mt. Oliver Church on Edmondson Avenue. Sherman loved to dance, cook, refinish antique furniture, socialize with people and by all means travel.

On September 17, 2004, he united in holy matrimony with Linda Jackson whom he loved dearly and always called her "OT".

Sherman leaves a fortune of love to his wife Linda; two sons, Ryan L. Brown and Aaron Webb; one daughter LaTarsha Webb; three grandchildren, Bakari Brown, Taylor Webb and Bomani Brown; one daughter-in-law December Brown; two brothers, Dennis and Calvin Brown; two sister-in-laws; Andrena and Joann. He also leaves a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ My prayers are with you Ryan, December and family. We know that which does not break us makes us stronger. Your father has left a legacy of strength and power within his family. The first impression of Ryan and December exemplifies the love that was implanted many years ago from a loving family.

God bless you...and I miss you both

*Ryan, we met your Dad briefly, but it was a lasting impression. He was very cordial, and comfortable to be around...we send our condolences and to tell you and your family that the pain of losing someone so dearly will ease, for if we don't hold onto them spiritly here on earth, they are going to a better place. We are here for you....Wes & Ruth Graves & Family
