

Sherman Leonard Johnson

November 16, 1957 - January 23, 2017

SHERMAN LEONARD JOHNSON, son of the late Joseph C. Johnson and Priscilla Williams Johnson, was born on November 16, 1957. He was the youngest of his twin sister, Sharon Lorraine. Sherman departed this life on January 23, 2017, unexpectedly to us, but God makes no mistakes.

Sherman attended Baltimore City Public Schools, graduating from Lake Clifton Vocational School on North Avenue. There he pursued education in carpentry.

Sherman met and married Rhonda Livingston. Out of this union were born two children, Lakeisha Priscilla and Sherman Leonard Johnson, Jr.

Sherman always had a smile, a big "cheesy" smile with nicknames such as "Tank" and "Sherm Rock". He was one that always knew something, everything, but didn't know nothing. He was always teased and joked about that. He knew a lot and no one could tell him that he didn't.

Sherman did various jobs helping others with so much such as paint jobs, mowing lawns, shoveling snow and helping family members and friends. He was such a great painter. When needing his service, Sherman would be there, knowing everything about paint. He often boasted of the buildings around Baltimore that he helped to construct.

Sherman leaves to cherish his memory: one daughter, Lakeisha P. Hariston (Jason); one son, Sherman L. Johnson, Jr.; step son, Steven Livingston; five grandchildren, Vashon D. Hariston, Devonate V. Hariston, L'Keia J. Hariston, Destin D. Hariston and Jai-Soniya L. Hariston; three brothers, Verne K. Johnson of Randallstown, Maryland, Edison W. Johnson of Woodbridge, Virginia, and Joseph Z. Johnson of Baltimore, Maryland; two sisters, Betty J. Cooke-Belk of Ocala, Florida and Sharon L. Bethea of Gwynn Oak, Maryland; two brothers-in-law, Johnny Belk and Robert Bethea; two sisters-in-law, Patricia Johnson and Cynthia Johnson; a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, close friends, other relatives and friends.
