

Sherman Lewis Jr.

January 15, 1963 - May 5, 2020

Sherman Lewis, Jr. (Sherman, Jr.) was born on January 15, 1952 to Sherman Lewis, Sr. and Aretha Parrish Lewis in Richmond, Virginia. He received his wings after a brief illness on May 5, 2020.

Sherman accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age and was baptized at First United Presbyterian Church, Richmond, VA where he remained a member until his death. Sherman attended Richmond Public Schools.

Sherman, known to many as the “Man with A Big Heart”, was a kind, caring and generous man. He loved everyone from the homeless people on the street to the doctors who rendered care to him. His passing will be a great loss to not only those who know him fondly, but to the many people throughout the City of Richmond, especially those who he unselfishly gave to and never asked for anything in return.

Sherman met the love of his life, Quincy Jackson, on June 10, 2011. They were meant to be and were inseparable until his untimely passing which has devastated Quincy as they have created so many memories.

Sherman was employed for several years as the Lead Bellman at the former Crown Plaza Hotel in Downtown Richmond. He lived a rich and full life.

Sherman's pastime was watching old westerns and daytime soap operas from his special recliner. He didn't talk to anyone while doing so and didn't want anyone talking to him. When his friends asked to sit in his chair he threatened to eject them from his chair and out of the house. That was Sherman.

Sherman was predeceased by his parents. He leaves to cherish so fondly in memory his devoted and loving fiancée, Quincy Jackson; son, DaRon Jackson (Marsha); grandson, Jamal Sterling; sister, Belinda Lewis Qualls (Robert), Lancaster, OH; brother, Robert "Bobby" W. Lewis, San Francisco, CA; nephew, Jonathan P. Qualls, Lancaster, OH; and goddaughter, Journey Rash, Atlanta, GA, and other relatives and friends who he loved and cherished like family. He will be forever missed.

“ *Quincy,
There is a sacredness in tears. They speak more eloquently than ten thousands tongues. They are the messengers of overwhelming grief, of deep contrition and of the memories of a great love, shared by you and Sherman. We thank our Heavenly Father for the wonderful life you were both afforded. Hold on to your memories. Peace and love.....Brenda Gordon*
