August 5, 1987 - February 5, 2002

Sherrard Marque's Bryant was born in Baltimore, Maryland on August 5, 1987. He was the youngest of three children born to Suzette Evans and Sean Maurice Bryant. He departed his life on February 5, 2002. He received his education at Pimlico Elementary, Harlem Park Middle School, Dr. Roland M. Patterson Middle School. He attended classes at Frederick Douglass High School where he was an honor student. He attended classes at BCCC at the Harbor Campus as a part of the Teen Focus. Sherrard was well liked by many students and staff at Frederick Douglass High School. A memorial service was held for him on Wednesday, February 6, 2002 at the school. Sherrard often expressed his desire to become a lawyer and was working towards reaching that goal. "Rardy" as he was called had a number of friends in school and church. His radiant smile was always seen whenever he participated in the activities. He enjoyed playing video games, basketball, and football and computer games. Some of his favorite songs were "We Fall Down", "Got the Devil Under My Feet", "When Praises Go Up", "Lord I Lift Your Name High" and "Blessed Assurance". He could often praise God in an Indian type dance or with uplifted hands. On Tuesday, February 5, 2002, Sherrard's life on this earth was ended suddenly. He wants to be remembered for his fun-living ways. He has touched the lives of many. Sherrard leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Suzette Evans-Wilson, a stepfather, Steve Wilson; his father, Sean M. “ Although you might find little solace in the why behind your sorrow. The one you love is gone from here, and this changes not tomorrow. If loss comes, too, with tragedy, its harder even still, to believe such pain was preference, much less anybody's will. God Bless You##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
