

Sherri D. Shields

April 9, 1977 - December 5, 2002

Sherri Diana Shields, daughter of Deborah and Selwyn Shields Sr. was born April 9, 1977 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life suddenly on December 5, 2002. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, where she attended Carver Vocational Technical High School. She truly enjoyed working with hair. Sherri loved children, so at the age of twenty-one. Sherri became self-employed as a Day Care Provider. At an early age Sherri received Christ as her Lord and savior. She attended Shiloh Baptist Church. Sherri, fondly known as “Ducy” made numerous friends wherever she went. Everyone who knew her will sincerely miss her smiling face. She was always a true friend with a listening ear. She was a devoted family member. Whenever a baby sitter was needed Ducy was always available. All Children loved her. Ducy leaves to cherish her memory: her parents, Deborah and Selwyn Shields Sr., one brother, Selwyn Shields Jr., a special brother, Trevis Sephes; grandmother, Lucille Jones; grandfather, Mitchell Shields; one niece, Selicia Shields; nine uncles, Mitchell, Robert, Mario, Terry, Ernest, George, Horace, Tom and Alfred; seven aunts, Maria, Janice, Rebecca, Neechie, Edna, Angela and Cleo; four great aunts, Gertrude Sanders, Kathy Rogers, Queen Esther, Jane Dangerfield; three godchildren, Demonica Collins, LaKeira Nance and John Cotton; two very special friends, Maria Delaware and Tamika Turner and a host of cousins and friends. IF SHERRI COULD SPEAK, I IMAGINE SHE WOULD SAY: “ I had a talk with Jesus today, with me everything is now all right. The battle is over; my heavenly Father won the fight. In time, he heals all wounds, you see that's why I'm free from misery. To my friends and loved ones whom I leave behind, please don't worry, For it is written, that God's will be done. Jesus really puts no more on you than you can bear, That is why I am now in his tender loving care" With Love, Mother, Father and Brother “ DUCY, Happy belated birthday....today you were so heavy on my mind today. we are now going on 22 years and missing you sis has not got any easier. We should have been at Mondawmin looking in shoe city checking out some kicks or something, There are times I wish I could pick up the phone and catch you on this crazy life down here. Thank you for watching over that baby boy you sent back to me and nene...I remember a few months after he was born we took him to your mom and said here is the baby Duky sent back down to Nene. You mom just held him am laughed. You kept all the babies around the way and spoiled them rotten when we needed sitters back in the day. Feel free to send down more...for we know the Angel you are, you have hand picked some cute babies for us... RIP DUCY...
