“ To the Family of Sherri Duelle Gibbs: I would like to share a scripture with you. Isaiah 26:19 says "Your dead ones will live. A corpse they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust...!" I hope this scripture will bring you comfort.##imported-begin##Michelle Horton##imported-end##

“ You have my deepest sympathy during this sorrowful time. Losing a loved one in death is never easy. May you draw comfort from the scriptures and keep in mind James 4:8 "Draw close to God, and he will draw close to YOU."##imported-begin##M. Douglas##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincerest condolences. I know your loss must be very painful. During this difficult time, the Bible can be very helpful. Almighty God has a hope for your dear loved one and your family. John 5:28,29 promises, "...all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Continue to draw strength from each other and the scriptures.##imported-begin##S. McNeil##imported-end##
