I had the pleasure of meeting Sherrod at Anthem. It was always a good time when he came around, we were both 49er fans and we had plenty to discuss after a game. Whenever the team had a pot luck we made sure to prepare a plate for Sherrod. To hear of your passing has been heartbreaking. I pray your family will find peace and comfort in the memories. Rest well my friend. Janet Waller from Anthem

My condolences to Sherrod's family. I met him years ago when he worked at Anthem BC/BS. He was such a kind, respectful and pleasant young man who always had a smile. He was like part of my team, Enrollment and Billing. Sherrod was an excellent worker who took pride his job. He was loved by me and everyone on my team. I will always cherish the memories we all had as well as the picture of the 2 of us taken when I retired. May God Bless you all.
