

Sherry Pittman

January 18, 1957 - May 22, 2009

A Time to Be Born Sherry Jean Pittman, daughter of the late James and Bessie Pittman, was born on January 18, 1957, in Baltimore, Maryland. God in his infinite wisdom suddenly transitioned Sherry home on Friday, May 22, 2009. Her son, Derrick Carrington and grandson, Baby Derrek Carrington, preceded her in death. Her brother, Linwood E. Pittman also preceded her in death. A Time to Plant Sherry was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Dunbar Senior High School. She also studied at Baltimore City Community College. Her employment career included positions at various businesses in Baltimore; but for the last seventeen years, Maryland State Government at the Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation in the Office of the Board of Appeals employed Sherry. Sherry was well known at DLLR, and was held in high regard of her kind and compassionate manner and for the integrity she brought to her performance on behalf of Maryland citizens. A Time to Embrace Sherry enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. But her three sons were the source of her greatest joy. There was nothing she would not do for “my three sons” –as she would say. She loved them more than life, and they loved her in equal measure. She was devastated at the loss of her son, Derrek. Derrek showered her with an array of gifts. Wherever Sherry went, she was escorted and chauffeured by Brian. They were inseparable. At home, Kevin cooked and would spend many hours keeping her company. Her grandchildren, nieces and nephews also brought a lot of pleasure to her life. Her lively dancing and singing-mostly with a comedic flavor to it-was all they needed for entertainment. Family gatherings were full of joy, excitement and lots of laughter, because Sherry made it happen. Sherry was very caring, nurturing and devoted to her family. Sherry was exceptionally dedicated to her mother; and lovingly managed the daily needs of her mother through a lengthy illness until her mother's passing several years ago. The depth of her love and devotion toward family was evidenced by the care Sherry gave to her nieces, T'Erica and Jahyra, whom she was raising as her own. She had a very loving and supportive relationship with her siblings that honored her mother's wish that they all love and care for each other unconditionally. For many years, She was a member of Trinity Apostolic Faith Church and loved God with all of her heart. She made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone whose life she has touched. A Time to Depart Her memory will be cherished by her loving sons, Kevin Powell and Brian Jackson; one grandson, Kevin Powell, III; two granddaughters, Tytianna Powell and Taylor Jackson; two nieces that she cared for like her own, T'Erica Perry and Jahyra Lands; stepmother, Bernice Howard; six sisters, Marsha Davis, Doris Shields (Chester) of Scotland Neck, North Carolina, Ivy Williams (Derrell), Lisa Drones (Christopher), Joy Rogers (Clyde),

“ Dear family, I am so sorry that you lost your dear Sherry. She really sounded like a wonderful person, and I can imagine how much you all miss her. The loss of a beautiful life is so devastating, and no matter how many times we go through this, we can never get used to it. Our loving God Jehovah never meant for this to happen to us. He created the first man and woman with a wonderful start, and the prospect of everlasting life before them. Unfortunately, they did not appreciate what God had done for them, and by their disobedience they brought death to all of us. Jehovah immediately took steps to undo the sorrow Adam brought upon us, by sending his most beloved son Jesus to suffer and die for us. 1st Cor 15:22 puts it this way, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." Jehovah has given his son Jesus all authority to resurrect the dead. John 5:28,29 makes this powerful statement, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life. May you find comfort in these scriptures, and in all the wonderful promises God has made to those who love him. Let your precious thoughts of Sherry bring fond memories to your hearts to help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ No matter how often it strikes, death is something that we will never get use to because the Bible refers to it as 'the last enemy'. Our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon he will by means of his son Christ Jesus bring our enemy to nothing. What a wonderful day that is going to be! “ With heart felt sadness we extend our condolences and open our hearts to you during your season of bereavement. Remember that weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning. As time has passed and all of your tears have fallen stand strong upon the Word of the Lord." And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes and there shall be no more death nor sorrow nor crying neither shall their be anymore pain."(Rev.21:4) Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. It is our prayer that the Lord comfort you and yours in these darkest of days. With love everflowing, The Morris-McNeil Family. “ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) to life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find comfort in God and the many wonderful promises found in his word the Bible because Titus 1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolence for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful resurrection hope. And may you draw closer to the ones responsible for that loving hope: Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.###imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill###imported-end##
