

Sheryl "Shelly" J. Green

July 29, 1957 - February 27, 2017

Sheryl "Shelly" Brewington Green, loving Mother and Grandmother, was born on July 29th, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland to Allen Fletcher Brewington and Emma Jeannette Brewington. She died unexpectedly in her home on February 25th, 2017 in Berryville, Virginia at the age of 59.

Shelly was raised in Baltimore, Maryland and graduated from Western High School in Baltimore City—the oldest all girls public high school in the United States.

Her childhood summers were happily spent on Pine Avenue in Cumberland, Maryland with her maternal grandparents, Elmer Montgomery and Novella Montgomery. She gave birth to her first child Nathaniel III when she was 21 years old. Her two younger children, Lorenzo and Kara, were born when she was 31 and 33 respectively— completing her family with 2 sons and 1 daughter. She was a steadfast and kind mother as well as a doting grandmother to her 4 grandchildren.

Shelly worked for Transdev in the HR Department for 10 plus years and when she passed was the current manager of their HR Department. In approximately 2007, Shelly relocated for an office move to Berryville, Virginia where the pace of everyday life was much slower and more relaxed. In the midst of all of this, she fought and beat breast cancer not once, but twice!

When talking about Shelly, it is hard not to mention her laugh--it was big, infectious, and made the listener smile to hear it. To know her was to love her. She was warm and kind and she made everyone feel important with her focus and attention on what you had to say. She will be so deeply missed by all who loved her.

Shelly is survived by: her three (3) children, Nathaniel Edward Green III (Roxanne) of Sterling, Virginia, Lorenzo Eric Jennings of Winchester, Virginia, and Kara Jeanette Jennings of Berryville, Virginia; four (4) grandchildren: Nathaniel Edward Green IV of Baltimore, Maryland, Isis Antonia Green, Christian Marcello Green, and Eden Jeanette Green all of Sterling, Virginia; her two (2) siblings: Allen Erik Brewington of Capon Bridge, West Virginia and Sharon Brewington of Phoenix, Arizona; and a host of other relatives and friends.
