

Shevan L. Barnes

September 8, 1971 - August 21, 2002

Shavon Latreice Barnes was called to her eternal rest on Wednesday, August 21, 2002 after a brief illness at Good Samaritan Hospital. Shavon was born to Deborah Turner and James Barnes on September 8, 1971 in Baltimore, MD. Shavon received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools. She worked for one year at a Nursing Home in Philadelphia, PA. Shavon also worked at Value Village in Glen Burnie, Maryland for one and half years. Shavon was a member of Garden of Prayer Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Melvin B. Tuggle, II. Shavon B.K.A. Peca was a fun loving person who was loved by everyone. She enjoyed cooking and also liked very much to look after and take special care of her flower garden. She will be deeply missed by all that knew her. To cherish Shavon's memory she leaves: her mother, Deborah Turner; father, James Barnes; one son, Derrick Blankenship; three brothers, James Barnes, Jr., Damon Davis, and Kenneth Turnage; one sister, Lakiesha Huges; two grandmothers, Irene Cephas, and Katherine Dixon; nine aunts, five uncles, four great-uncles, two great-nieces, three nephews; one special friend, Mark Seymore, one special aunt, Joanne Watkins, and many other loving relatives and friends.
