“ My deepest Sympathy and condolences to your family...I met Ms Cooper, only one time and I must say that you she was a joy to know. In this time of grief I ask god to give the family peace and understanding during this difficult time. Philemon 4:7 And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Matthew 5:4 “Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

“ I was sorry to read about the death of your dear family member. When you lose someone in death the pain can be unbearable but at this time God's word gives comfort and hope.-Romans 15:4. What hope is there for the dead? Jesus said "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out to a resurrection..."-John 5:28,29 The dead will be resurrected into a cleansed earth under better conditions.-Psalms 37:9-11,29. In paradise on earth the Bible teach "death will be no more...the former things will have passed away."-Revelation 21:4

And my heart sank when i heard. I am so sorry for this loss. My sweet sweet friend. Malaika please share with your brother, sister, and family that, words can not express my sadness, But I stand on God's word in knowing we serve an awesome God that knows what is best for us at all times. I looked up to Shindana and loved her like family. She was such an amazing, vibrant, and supportive presence in my life, and you knew you were loved by Shindana just because she took time out of a busy schedule to share with you. I always walked away from our times together feeling confident and fabulous just to be me. I could go on as the memories flood my eyes with tears, but I smile in spite of myself. With regards to you 3 children please know that I have marveled at the seed your mom planted in all of you. Although I've looked from a far, my chest swells with pride because i get to say I remember when they were young and look at them now as they make their marks upon this world. That is so Shindanaish. LOL I loved Shindana, my sister, and friend. I will cherish our talks and our special times. I will sing a sweet song or two when I remember her, and I'll attempt to pay it forward when an opportunity to build up someone comes my way. Love all of you with much love.

I'm sorry for your loss we were in women ministry @new psalmist baptist and few other ministries. She had a wonderful spirit I'm sorry I didn't get a chance to see her I often wondered how she was thou. she was on my mind at times. But may God give you strength and peace. I also did some graphics for her when she was travelling, I always enjoyed talking with her she always talked my her "God" that how she related to HIM as her God.
