July 27, 1945 - November 1, 2016

His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you were faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of Shirl Evelyn Foxx was the only child of the union of Milton Jarrett and Nellie Payne. Shirl was born in Cincinnati, Ohio on July 27, 1945 and was raised in Ashland, Kentucky surrounded by her mother, sisters, and a large and loving extended family, After graduating in the first integrated class of Paul G. Blazer High School, Shirl would head to Brooklyn, New York to join her aunt, uncle, and beloved cousins to begin her career working for Dell Publishing Company.

Shirl would go on to complete her Bachelor of Science degree and spent many years employed at Procter and Gamble in Cincinnati, Ohio, working as an EEO coordinator, Diversity Trainer, HR Recruiter, and Engineering Specialist. When Shirl relocated to Virginia she began a new career working as a Technical Writer for U.S. Customs in Washington, DC. Shirl spent the second half of her career working to help others, prior to her retirement; she worked as a case manager and paralegal. Shirl loved the law, and spent much of her time in retirement advocating for seniors and helping them with legal concerns.

Shirl is survived by her three children: Deidre (Cornelius) Bryant - Spencer,

Cheryl Johnson, and Lari Dempsey, her grandchildren: Phillip Bryant, Lauren, Blaire, Christian, and Kyle Johnson, her sisters: Joyce Ann Jones, June Jones, Natalie Zanders and April Jones, two devoted long-time friends: Nodra West and Jan Battle, and a host of devoted nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Shirl loved life, she loved to dance, she was a lifelong learner and she could often be found reading and studying the Bible in various translations, in her desire to understand the Bible from all points of view.
