“ I wish to send my sincere and heartfelt condolences at this most difficult time. Death is something we can never get used to, because it brings us so much pain knowing that our loved one is no longer with us. Jehovah God didnot desire this pain and saddness for us, and in the very near future he promises an end to all sickness and death. Isaiah 25,8 says that Jehovah God will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, because Jehovah himself has spoken it. We all know what it means to swallow up something, but that is his loving promise to us from a God who the bible says, it is impossible for him to lie, Heb 6:18. Through the ressurection of the dead many will come back to life, because Acts 24:15 tells us that there will be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. Knowing that your loved one will live again can be a wonderful hope to cling to, as well as the precious memories you made with Shirl over the years. I hope those memories, as well as the love of Jehovah and the Christ be a comfort to you in the days ahead.

“ I extend my deepest condolences for the loss of Mrs. Walker. The Bible lovingly tells us at 1 Corinthians chapter 15,verse 26 about our "enemy death" being "destroyed." There is hope of our dead loved ones returning to life. Acts 24:15 declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful promise found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. The loss of one we love causes much sorrow and grief however,there is a remedy to this condition of death. It is the resurrection promised by "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). Job 14:14,15 lets us know that God has a "yearning" an earnest longing and desire to resurrect the dead. May you find comfort from these promises in God's word the Bible as we await the fulfillment of this wonderful provision.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Shirl and I were co-workers at University Dept. of Pharmacy. It sadden me to learn of her death. I'm blessed to have known her and the family for so many years. The memories and times we shared will forever be held close to my heart. To the family I say this, look to the Lord for your comfort, if you have not accepted Him as your personal Savior do it now! May the peace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ contine to be with each of you.##imported-begin##Nancy##imported-end##
