

Shirlena Gregory

August 23, 1948 - August 4, 2008

In the early morning hours of August 4, 2008 God looked over the balcony of glory and saw the condition of his servant, SHIRLENA EATON-GREGORY. An angel was dispatched to her, who spoke softly saying, "Come unto Me, and I will give you eternal rest." She accepted the call and rose to a higher realm to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Shirlena Gregory (affectionately known as "Shirley"), the daughter of the late John and Dorothy Eaton was born on August 23, 1938 in Baltimore, Maryland. After graduating from Frederick Douglass Senior High School Shirley continued her education and became a Nurse. Shirley used her nursing skills for over thirty-nine years to care for people. Shirley met her best friend and the love of her life Theodore Gregory. On November 23, 1961, Shirley married her beloved and devoted husband and their earthly union lasted for forty-seven years. Shirley was matriarch; she opened her home and her heart to nurture, not only her siblings, but her nieces and nephews. She was also eager to lend a helping hand and support to any and everyone that needed her. Shirley accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior at an early age and became a member alongside her husband at First Mt. Calvary Baptist Church. Their Christian journey lasted for more than four decades. She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Theodore Gregory; mother-in-law, Helen Foster Gregory; four brothers, Leon, Earl, Lloyd, and Ronald Eaton; several brothers-and sisters-in-law, and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and close friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Shirlena Gregory

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ In loving memory of a beautiful lady - I will always remember our talks and how she adored her family ... and her true love, Theodore.##imported-begin##Theresa Gotti, LCSW-C##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my deepest condolences for the loss of Mrs. Gregory. Romans 15:4 says that we can experience much "comfort and hope" from the Bible. One such example is Acts 24:15 which lovingly reveals us: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and hope every time you think about this wonderful resurrection promise found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Family, My sincere condolences goes out to you. May you find comfort in Almighty God's promises at John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3-5. Please take the time to read those promises and find a measure of comfort during this time of bereavement.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Aunt Shirley was a beautiful, warm, and giving person. She never let anything stop her from accomplishing what she wanted to get done. I loved her very much and she always accepted me as one of her own. My children Bryan and Elonne and I will miss her dearly. May God grant you Peace Uncle Theodore, you are the love of her life.##imported-begin##Kimberly McCorr##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My sincere condolences go out to the family. May your hope be in the many promises of God who gives us comfort and a wonderful hope for the future. He never desired sickness and death for us, and through the ransom of his son Jesus, he will bring many back to eternal life in peaceful conditions. John 3:16 reminds us of this: "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." May you find much comfort and strength in God's promises.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM