

Shirley A. Littlejohn

November 26, 1941 - October 14, 2002

Mrs. Shirley Ann Littlejohn, wife of the late Ophie Littlejohn, mother, daughter, sister and grandmother, will long be remembered in the hearts of those whom she left behind. She was born in Leesburg, Florida on November 26, 1941 to the late Marie Timmons and the late Napoleon Wiggins. She attended the public School system and furthered her education at Carver Heights Junior College, all in Leesburg, Florida. In 1967 she moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where she raised her family and was a pillar to the community until her health began to fail her. Her dedication to her daughters and grandchildren was immeasurable. Shirley will be missed for her wit and clever sayings. Shirley departed this earth to go to a better place on October 14, 2002 at 10:35 am at Bon Secours Hospital. She leaves to cherish her memory: seven daughters, Celia Littlejohn, Barbara Littlejohn both of Baltimore, Md., Okareta Hartley (Mickey) of Jacksonville, Fla., Twocrecia Littlejohn, Trace Littlejohn, Chantell Zellous all of Baltimore, MD. And Connie Hursh of Homestead, Fla.; fourteen grandchildren; a brother, Walter Wiggins of New Jersey; four sisters-in-law, two brothers-in-law, a godson, special friends, a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

“ At this difficult time so many people care deeply about what you're going through, though no one can truly understand all that you feel...But please remember how much we care, and know you're surrounded by warm, supportive thoughts and wishes for strength and peace today, and in all the days to come.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
