

Shirley Mae Armstead

November 28, 1954 - June 13, 2014

SHIRLEY MAE ARMSTEAD was born November 28, 1954 to Vernice Armstead and the late James Armstead. Shirl (we called her) suddenly departed this life on June 13, 2014.

Shirley received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System and was a graduate of Fairmount Hill High School. She furthered her education at Community College of Baltimore. Shirley retired after years of employment at the Domino Sugar Company. You could always call on her if you needed a helping hand.

Shirley enjoyed being with her family, especially her mother Vernice Armstead. Shirley had a special bond with family members James, Tony, Bernice and others. She enjoyed good food, good music, family and taking trips. She leaves to cherish her memory: brother, Terry and cousins, Tony, Brian, and Shantelé; as well as a host of cousins, friends and other relatives. Shirley had a saying, "Leave it in God's hands."

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Mankind's Creator, Jehovah God assures us that our enemy death will be destroyed.(See 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Isaiah 25:8) The Bible also reveals at John 11:25-27 that God's Son,Jesus Christ will resurrect our dead loved ones. I hope this message gives you much comfort and strength in the days ahead.

“ My condolences to the Armstead family. I am so sorry for your loss. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. The Bible promises: "And he (Almighty God Jehovah) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." (Revelation 21:4) Death will be removed from all the earth. (Isaiah 25:8) Tears of sorrow will vanish. No one will die from natural causes or weep. Jehovah God also assures us that our dear dead loved ones will receive a resurrection to a restored beautiful paradise earth. (Acts 24:15) I hope that these scriptures can be a comfort to you. May Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)
