

Shirley Baker

June 22, 1951 - February 28, 2023

Shirley Ann Baker entered heaven on Friday, February 28, 2023 after a lengthy struggle with cancer and other complications at the age of 71.

Born to the late Larry and Goldie Baker, Shirley was educated in the Baltimore City Public school system where she graduated from Dunbar High School. She later completed secretarial school and also joined the United States National Guard.

Shirley was a loving mother to her daughter Rita Baker. More-over, while married to the late Paul Faison who passed in 2011, she was a devoted, caring and loving wife.

During 20 years of employment with Northwest Professional Pharmacy, Shirley provided exceptional customer care. She retired from Rite Aid pharmacy as she thoroughly enjoyed providing pharmaceutical service. Shirley was saved and loved traveling with cousins Jasper and Barbara Baker to her home church, the New Prayer Mission Church of God in Christ, under the leader of Pastor Otto Gross, Sr.

Throughout life, Shirley was peaceful, quiet and soft spoken. She and sister Terri enjoyed playing pinochle and bowling with their siblings. She immensely valued and unconditionally loved her sister connections. Bowling, being a team player and helping others brought her great joy.

Memories of Shirley's peaceful spirit will be cherished by her daughter, Rita Baker; grandchildren: Tiara Williams, Tyra Carter, Steve and September Everett; great grandchildren, sisters: Carolyn, Terri, Rhonda and Rolanda Baker; brothers: Tyrone Baker, Maurice and Cedric Harris; Aunts: Gloria Ash, Regina Blake, and Susie; uncle Orlanda Blake, brother-in-law Mark Bailey, best friend Connie, Godson DeShae and a host of relatives and friends. Shirley's cat "mercy" will certainly miss her love, and companionship.
