

Shirley Bernice Johnson

August 21, 1937 - March 15, 2003

Shirley Bernice Johnson, daughter of the late Thomas Johnson and Ella Mae Wheatley, was born on August 21, 1937 in Dorchester County, Maryland. She was called to rest on March 15, 2003 after a brief illness. She attended schools in Dorchester County and graduated from Dunbar Sr. High School in Baltimore. She worked as a professional upholstery seamstress until her retirement in 1999. "Shirley B", as she was affectionately known, loved to watch TV and enjoyed playing computer games. She also loved to garden, to travel, and to cook. She was devoted to her family. She was a loving companion, sister, aunt and friend. She leaves to mourn: her devoted companion, Donald Gardener, five sisters, Martha Milligan and Patricia Demby of Dorchester County; Rita, Marilyn and Pamela Johnson of Baltimore; three brothers, James Jolley, Thomas Johnson of Baltimore and Russell Johnson of Salisbury, Md.; two sisters preceded her in death, Ruby Rideout and Rosemarie Johnson; one sister-in-law, Carolyn Jolley and one brother-in-law, George Demby, many nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends. God saw you were tired and did what he thought best. He put his arms around you and whispered "Come home to rest." It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone. For part of us went with you, the day he called you home. Lovingly submitted, The Family
