“ To Mr.Brooks and family please except my condolences for your loss. To lose someone you care about deeply to a long battle of illness can bring about sadness and relief, in that they are no longer suffering anymore and they're at peace now, but sadness because (you're going to miss them) to see their smile, [the warmth they have brought to your life.] The bible holds out a hope which it says at Isaiah 33:24: And no resident will says: "I am sick." The people that are dwelling in [the land]will be those pardoned for their error. Through the prophet Isaiah; Jehovah God made this promise. That there will be a time in the future that no resident or (human) will die of the diseases we are plague with today. He also made a promise that death will be swallow up forever and that's at Isaiah 25:8, but Jesus Christ tells of a beautiful hope we can look forward to at (John 5:28,29) that there is going to be a resurrection right here on earth. You will have an opportunity to see your wife Mrs. Shirley Brooks again right here on earth. I know she will be missed. “ To the Brooks family, I offer my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we must deal with sorrow such as this, but may you find comfort in the promise noted at John 5:28,28. There we are told that "all those in the memorial tombs will come out..." Until such time arrives, may you look to "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) for strength.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I was sorry to hear of the recent death of your loved one. My prayers are with your family. Sadly sickness claims many people. But it was never God's purpose for people to get sick and die. When he first created Adam and Eve they were perfect, but because of their disobedience they passed sickness and death on us,their offspring. Romans 5:12 But God hates to see us die, and he has purposed to end sickness and death very soon. Rev 21: 3,4 says that :he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. I hope these words from the bible bring you comfort at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnsonr##imported-end##
