“ I wish to extend my sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Hill. It is sad to lose someone you love in death. The bible gives a comforting hope that one day soon by means of God's kingdom death will be removed forever. May the comforting words at John 5:28,29 bring you some encouragement, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgement."###imported-begin###K.D Smith###imported-end###

“ Earth has no sorrow that heaven can not bear. Rejoice in the memories of the good times you have shared with your parents. As you shed tears of sorrow, remember that God is able to sustain you. Shirelle, Malcolm, William and Jared be strong and trust in God, for he is a keeper. ##imported-begin## Elaine Whitehurst Clinton ##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. {It's a coincidence that I share the same last name.} The Bible lovingly says- "Your dead ones will live...they will rise up..." {Isaiah 26:19} May you and your family receive much solace and strength from friends, family and the many loving promises found in the Holy Bible. ##imported-begin## Sharon Hill ##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death. ##imported-begin## Senita Swann ##imported-end##

“ Hi's ! Hills ! May the God of all comfort be with you. Losing a dear one in death leaves a huge space to fill. Knowing that others cares help so much. I know the feeling too. The bible gives many answers to questions that come up when a person die, What hope is there for our loved one, Why did they have to die. Jesus said at John 11:22-44 to Mary and her sister that their brother would live again. Great news to them . We have many promises of our heavenly father to read in the bible. I hope these few comforting thoughts was helpful. My condolences, Lillian Crosby.###imported-begin##lillian crosby###imported-end##
